Fort Bend Baptist Academy's football season kicked off on Friday, September 4, in the new Eagles Stadium, 1250 Seventh Street in Sugar Land. The football/soccer stadium and track are a part of the growing FBBA Athletic Complex located on Seventh Street between Eldridge and Gillingham in Sugar Land. Also under construction at the Complex is an Athletic Field House slated for completion later this year.

Fort Bend Baptist Academy is celebrating 23 years of glorifying God through excellence in Christian education. Located on a 35-acre campus in Sugar Land, the school numbers over 820 pre-kindergarten through 12th grade students. For more information on FBBA, visit www.fbba.org.
